

Plot: a 25 year old man is getting married to an 18 year old girl. It is an arranged marriage.

Verse format

Uu/ | u/ | u/ | u/

U / | u / | u /

Uu/ | u/ | u/ | u/

U / | u / | u /

Bride: sad that her magical day is ending and from tomorrow she will basically be a glorified maid to her in laws.

I have been a queen the bride to be
Tomorrow all is past
Get them chai and wash and clean and cook
I wish this day could last

*So long I've waited for this day
By 6 PM all will be done
Let's hope that things go well today
Dada dee dada de dum dum*

Groom: can't wait to consummate the wedding, and has been waiting eagerly for the three day festivities to be over

It's the moment when a boy becomes
A man who stands so proud
I will bed my bride my first in life
Just leave, Oh wedding crowd

*So long I've waited for this day
By 6 PM all will be done
Let's hope that things go well today
Dada dee dada de dum dum*

Brides parents: Nervous because they are about to play hooky and not pay the dowry, and just need the wedding to be over, because after that the grooms family cannot do anything.

They demand so much a car more cash
We're facing bankruptcy
Let's not pay cuz when the weddings done,
They'll have to let it be

*So long I've waited for this day
By 6 PM all will be done
Let's hope that things go well today
Dada dee dada de dum dum*

\

Grooms mother and father: are anxious because they are about to pull a dowry trick where right before the kids get married, they will demand a ridiculous amount of money and not let the wedding continue till that is done.

They are cheats and scum they won't pay up
They're waiting for tonight
We should make a scene demand it then
No time to be polite

*So long I've waited for this day
By 6 PM all will be done
Let's hope that things go well today
Dada dee dada de dum dum*

Everyone sings the chorus.